

UT-220

onlineBU.com

M. B. A. (Second Semester) (PT) Examination, 2002

Paper : P-205

INDIAN BUSINESS and ECONOMIC ENVIRONMENT

Time allowed : Three Hours

Maximum Marks : 70

Section-A

(Short Answers)

Note : Attempt any four questions.

All questions carry equal marks. $4 \times 7 = 28$ marks

1. Give arguments in favour and against the policy of globalisation. Do you find it useful to the nation? Clarify.
2. What do you mean by transfer of technology? Write for and against the use of foreign technology in Third World Countries.
3. "The prime cause of food problem in India is the rapid rise in the population." State your views in favour and against of this statement.
4. How far has the public sector in Indian economy justified itself in accelerating economic growth? Discuss.
5. What policy the Govt. of India has adopted in the various five year plans for narrowing down the regional disparities? Explain.
6. What do you understand by Fiscal Policy. How far can it be used as an instrument for economic development? Discuss it with reference to India.

UT-220

PTO

[2]

onlineBU.com

7. "Population control is definitely a necessary conditions for India's rapid economic development, but by itself it is not a sufficient condition". Discuss this statement.
8. Examine the policy of economic liberalisation and discuss its effect on the growth of Indian economy.

Section-B

(Essay Type Answer)

Note : Attempt any three questions.

All questions carry equal marks. $3 \times 14 = 42$ marks

9. Define economic planning. Explain the necessity and importance of economic planning for an under-developed country like India. Give suitable case studies.
10. In the context of India's new Industrial policy, critically discuss the role of large business houses and multinational corporations in India's industrialisation. Give suitable case studies.
11. Describe the changes in India's composition of production and investment during past five decades. Can this change be said to be balanced one? Explain.
12. Discuss critically the un-employment problem in the Indian economy. Evaluate the policy measures undertaken to solve it.
13. "Eradication of poverty is the main objective of economic development of India". How has this objective affected the strategy of economic development in our country? Discuss with examples.

500]

UT-220